

Hero's in the Houston area

1. Hero's name: Vanessa Lipscomb

What makes this person a hero?

Created a non-profit called the WOW project where she provides food for her neighborhoods by bringing and stocking community fridges in the Alief community.

Contact information: (713) 498-5418

2. Hero's name: Sindy Barnett

What makes this person a hero?

Distributes food and activities to children curbside for the department's Curbside food distribution for youth program in Houston.

Contact information: (713) 645-3589

3. Hero's name: Leonel Villanueva

What makes this person a hero?

Created a Go Fund me page to help those in need in Honduras due to hurricane Eta. Is currently at $47,000.

Contact information: <https://www.gofundme.com/f/26rn9309tc>

4. Hero's name: Andy Canales

What makes this person a hero?

Dedicated to ensuring that Houston's world-famous diversity translates into world-leading opportunities for students of all backgrounds.

Contact information: (713) 498-5418

5. Hero's name: Celesté Arredondo-Peterson

What makes this person a hero?

Works to ensure that Black and Latino communities have access to the safe housing conditions that can help residents achieve their dreams and reach their fullest potential.

Contact information: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/celest%C3%A9-arredondo-peterson-41552447/>

6. Hero's name: Felipe Lopez

What makes this person a hero?

A local Houston Artist that sheds light on issues such as health, education, and environment through his art.

Contact information: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/felipe-lopez-a060a5a6/>

7. Hero's name: Dan Price

What makes this person a hero?

begun a new initiative for creating a network of community health workers who can sustain a data-driven culture of health in the communities.

Contact information: 713.743.4136

8. Hero's name: Drue DaSilva

What makes this person a hero?

Known for constantly giving back to her community, tirelessly volunteering for organizations and communities in the Houston area.

Contact information: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/druedasilva/>

9. Hero's name: Daniel Wolfe

What makes this person a hero?

Delivered and fed more than 1,000 Houstonians in every area of the city during the COVID-19 outbreak. Raised $5,120 to help cover cost of groceries and supplies needed to make the effort happen also added in an extra incentive to motivate people to help which was for every $25 that you donate for the cause, he would enter your name into a contest to win a private chef steak/beef tenderloin dinner prepared by Daniel himself for six guests that will be paired with wine.

Contact information: <https://www.facebook.com/danielhwolfe>

10. Hero's name: Rocio Cardona

What makes this person a hero?

A local Houstonian helps her home country of Honduras that was hit by Hurricane Eta. In the short time span of just three days, she's already collected several bags of clothes, shoes and other much-needed items.

Contact information:

<https://www.click2houston.com/news/local/2020/11/12/locals-helping-hurricane-eta-victims-in-honduras/>

